

POKERSTARS GUIDE TO HAND RANKINGS

TEXAS HOLD'EM HAND RANKINGS

Before you hit the online poker tables, you'll need to familiarise yourself with the basic hand rankings and rules that govern Texas Hold'em. Here are the 10 hands every player should know before joining the action.

HIGH CARD

Any hand that does not qualify under the categories listed. In the event of a tie, the highest card wins, such as 'ace-high'.

ONE PAIR

Two cards of matching rank, and three unrelated side cards. In the event of a tie, the player with the highest, and if necessary, second or third-highest side card wins.

TWO PAIR

Two cards of matching rank, two cards of different matching rank, and one kicker. If both players have an identical Two Pair, the highest kicker wins.

THREE OF A KIND

Three cards of the same rank, and two unrelated side cards. In the event of a tie, the player with the highest, and if necessary, second-highest side card ('kicker') wins.

STRAIGHT

Five non-suited cards in sequence. In the event of a tie, the highest ranking card at the top of the sequence wins.

FLUSH

Five cards of the same suit, not in sequence. In the event of a tie, the player holding the highest ranked cards wins.

FULL HOUSE

Three cards of the same rank, and two cards of a different, matching rank. In the event of a tie, the highest three matching cards wins.

FOUR OF A KIND

Four cards of the same rank, and one side card or 'kicker'. In the event of a tie, the player with the highest side card ('kicker') wins.

STRAIGHT FLUSH

Five cards in sequence, of the same suit. In the event of a tie, the highest rank at the top of the sequence wins

ROYAL FLUSH

Poker's most famous hand, a royal flush, cannot be beaten. It consists of the ace, king, queen, jack and ten of a single suit.
